

Our Loved Ones Are Close By

I love the fact that Spirit and loved ones still amaze me on a regular basis. Anyone that has been to the shop knows that I speak often of my 10 year old Grandson that is a Medium. This week I met with a fantastic 10 year old young lady that has incredible abilities. Those watching over us are sending these children to us with these abilities and they are all very old souls. Their knowledge and perspective amaze me and I love to help them and their families understand their gifts and in the process I learn so much.

Mothers and Grandmothers of these kids are opening up as well, which helps these children from having their gifts put aside and stunting the development. I have heard Spirit mention that they are here to help save us, but I am not given much more than that. I do know that most of them are so charismatic that they could get us to drink the Koolaid . I am thankful that all of the ones I have met are incredible people.

Family members should try to allow themselves to open up more especially if they have one of these children in their life. Doing it is so healing for all of us. There is nothing better than knowing we are not alone. I speak often of the signs that they send us, especially the winged ones. Try to pay attention when you see birds, dragonflies and butterflies. They are messengers from heaven. Playful family members love to move things, flicker lights, send phone calls with no number, mess with your computer, tv and music. Be aware. It is amazing!
